Rick
Wasatch
Meat
Mkt
to Exchange

straw, but by the time the railroad came in 1899 they ny of their hats from the outside world.

owever, all the hats were made right in Heber City. onal change to the hats they re-trimmed them.

can of the Duncan House sold hats to ladies in a store ier hotel, and Mrs. Lovisa Alexander had a two-room h of her residence at 65 S. 1st East. Alice Ryan Jones y successful shop known as the Elite Millinery near ist North and Third East for many years. She was e her of her art and taught many girls how to make Annie Jones Smith was also a talented milliner and Irs. Jones for many years. She would attend the Paris ol e h spring to learn the latest fads and fashions. ffrue n) Winterrose was also a professional milliner , and erated a shop at 135 S. Main. Mary Bond and Gott lso made and sold hats.

rs. William Byrne of Park City opened a millinery shop and then later moved to 4 West Center. Her shop in 1920 she sold it to Vilate McMillan and Frankie Millan became sole operator in 1921 and expanded the eading women's specialty shop in Heber. She purchased S. ain in 1943 and established her business as Vilates do her own buying, selling, some of the bookkeeping, g and fitting. For many years Mrs. Rachel Giles and McMullin did the altering for the shop.

g was as important as millinery and most of the early qually skilled as dressmakers. Alice Ryan Jones was d for her dressmaking and many of the early brides